Ten straight and still traveling on all twelve cylinders. That's the pace of the Dodgers, and unless a couple of these cells crack between now and the next two weeks it does not look as if the Brooklyn nine will be headed in their rush for the pennant. Yesterday the Flatbush boys took two more from the Chicago Cubs as forcibly and as decisively as the Allies won the war. There was never a doubt after the first few innings of each struggle which way the wind was to blow with the final tallies reading 7 to 3 and 7 to 2.

which way the wind was to plow with the final tallies reading 7 to 3 and 7 to 2.

The representatives of the borough across the way are imbued with the dash and the spirit of pennant winners. They have acquired that which they have been slowly attaining all season. The Reds had it last year, but they haven't got it this season; nor have the Giants inhaled its winning breath as yet. All of which gives the crew of the gental Robbie a decided edge on their chief rivals in this final dash.

That eleven-inning victory over the Cardinals last week in particular added more impetus to their dizzy dash, and it will take first rate baseball and a good fighting spirit to stop them. The men of Flatbush and outlying sections now have five full games to work on. A tidy lead to say the least.

The Dodgers didn't tarry long in their scoring in the night-cap affair. They began at the outset. Olson, first up, caught one full on the face and rode it to far center for three bases. Johnston crashed out a single and moved up on Griffith's sacrifice. Wheat was thrown out by Martin, but Myers got two bases on a wild throw of his grasser by Terry, Johnston scoring. Schmandt singled, Myers it in the fourth the Cubs threatened to take the lead. Merkle doubled and scored on O'Farrell's single. Deal appeal to Oleve het Eigher!

Brunner to Join Squad

The first formal varsity eleven that has represented Fordham University eince 1917 started practice at Fordham Held Eesterday afternoon. More than thirty candidates were on hand for the initial work-out, and Joe Dumoe, the former Lafayette star, who is coaching the Maroon athletes, expects the number to be well over fifty before the end of the current week.

"Butts" Burnner, star halfback at the University of Pennsylvania last season, is contemplating entering the Bronx institution, according to a rumor circulated on the campus yesterday. It is said that he will join the Maroon squad within the next few days. The addition of Brunner will brighten the football prospects to a considerable extent, as the present backlield candidates are none too promising, with the exception of Halloran, who was one of the mainstays of the Boston College eleven two years ago.

Babe Gets Circuit Clout With Pipp on First and Puts New Yorkers in the Lead; Ward's Fine Play Checks Westerners in Eighth Inning

By W. O. McGeehan

DETROIT, Sept. 13 .- "Babe" Ruth drove his forty-ninth home run into the right field bleachers here to-day and won one of the most "croocial" games the Yankees ever played. The Yanks were a run behind when the historic paste came, and Ehmke, the toughest of the pitchers, seemed to be in his best form. The final score was 4 to 2 in favor of the Yanks. The forty-ninth came with Pipp on first and three balls and two strikes called on the Colossus of Swat in the sixth, with the Yanks a run behind. The next ball was close enough for Ruth to reach, and he drove it into the partly filled bleachers.

There were only about 10,000 witnesses to the forty-ninth homer, but they gave a fair indication of what might have happened if the clout had been made at the Polo Grounds. The natives, who have no interest in pennant races, were in the position and the mood to greet the forty-ninth home run as impartial baseball bugs, and they did they did.

When the Babe was trotting back to the dugout after the feat, fond parents lifted their children out into the field to shake the southpaw of the colossus. The desire to shake the left hand of Ruth seems to be quite as far-reaching as the desire to shake the mighty right of the late John L. Sullivan a few decades are.

for the home team and yielded only tive well scattered hits. Two of these came in the seventh inning, but Toney immediately tightened up and retired the side. Only one of the Westerners reached third base, and three others got as far as second. Toney gave but one base on balls, and he was virtually unbastable in the nicebes.

This makes Ruth's home-run record to date within one of the fifty on which number a great many skeptics will pay off this season. There have been many big bets made that the infant never would reach that notch. It looks more than a certainty now that he will pass it.

There were two out in the sixth when the forty-ninth home run came. Pipp had slashed a single through center. The youngsters in Ruth's own band were clutching their instruments and holding their breaths as Ehmke started to pitch to him. It was a slow and painful process.

First came a wide one and the colossus remained a big bronze statue. Then a slow one and Ruth swung vehemently at nothing. Then one inside and Ruth threw himself to the ground. Then another wide one and no motion on the Shocker, with a ball club below third base, has been winning steadily and will win as many as or more games than Mays will win by October. Grimes is a fine pitcher and so is Ehmke. There are still others. But we can't figure any changes in view of the embattled dope as gathered from the figures and the field.

TOKIO, Sept. 10.—Following the example of American and English universities, the imperial universities at Tokio and Kyoto will inaugurate annual rowing races. The first regatta will be held September 23 on Lake Biwa, Japan's largest body of water. The boats used will be the type rowed at Cambridge and Oxford, it has been decided.

Outfield offerings have also been thick. Joe Jackson is hardly a popular choice. Young, of the Giants, is a big favorite, and he deserves all the kind words said about him. For Young is one of the big stars of the game. But hitting the ball happens to be one of the main qualities left to a star outfielder, and while Young is a '330 hitter, Jackson is a better there is a good bit of logic in the claim that he is a better all.

But there isn't room for all. Some good ones must be left out, and in everal cases the worth of the men mentioned is so evenly balanced that it is all a matter of opinion rather than a matter of figures or actual supremacy proved beyond the shadow of a doubt. And there was no belief on our part that the selection would ever be made unanimous. If such a belief had ever existed, just what would have been the motivating impulse back of the idea?
